

Laura Dukes
Trainee Solicitor

DDI:
029 2082 9123

Email:
ldukes@darwingray.com

Education

Simon Balle School
Cardiff University

Laura graduated in English Literature at Cardiff University before studying the Graduate Diploma in Law in 2013. She then went on to complete the Legal Practice Course in 2016 also at Cardiff University where she gained a distinction.

Laura worked in a commercial law firm in Cardiff before joining Darwin Gray as a paralegal in August 2016. Laura began her training contract in March 2017 and is part of the Corporate and Commercial team.

Laura assists on a broad range of corporate matters such as incorporation, company administration and private share and asset sales. She also helps the team review a variety of commercial contracts, including business terms and conditions, confidentiality agreements, and franchise agreements.

As well as assisting with non-contentious matters, Laura helps with specialist litigation, predominantly in the area of construction disputes.

Personal Interests

Laura enjoys running, reading and spending time with friends and family.