An accomplished and highly experienced lawyer, Fflur has been head of Darwin Gray's talented Employment and HR team since 2013. In November 2021 she also became Darwin Gray's Managing Partner. Tenacious and dedicated, she advises on all aspects of employment law, with a particular expertise and interest in discrimination law.

Fflur thrives on bringing and defending complex Employment Tribunal claims. Her advice also ranges from unfair dismissals and redundancy consultations to whistleblowing matters. She often advises on thorny internal disciplinary and grievance issues, including conducting detailed investigations into such issues.

A regular contributor to national radio and TV programmes, Fflur is also described by clients as an 'engaging', 'clear' and 'informative' trainer, and delivers courses bilingually on a wide range of employment law topics, including Equality and Diversity, Mock Employment Tribunals, and Managing Difficult Conversations in the Workplace. She is also an acclaimed public speaker, participating regularly in different functions and conferences on employment law issues, including managing employees' mental health in the workplace.

To encourage best practice within the employment sector, in 2016 Fflur conceived the idea behind the Wales HR Network. Every year the Network hosts a variety of educational events for HR professionals, and also hosts the prestigious annual Wales HR Awards to celebrate the achievements of HR professionals across Wales.
